1. Your own case

Write your own case based on a situation from your internship or, if you are not currently in an internship, a fictional or personal situation. Describe a situation in which you identify a care issue. This could involve challenging behavior, loneliness, physical problems, etc. Provide a clear picture of your client and the care situation while describing your case.

2. Which care issue do you recognize in your situation?

Describe it. In caregiving, we aim to help clients in the best possible way. To describe appropriate care goals, you can use various methods. In these assignments, we use the SMART method. Based on your care issue, describe a SMART goal.

3. You have now described a care issue. How can you try to address it through a musical intervention?

Describe the intervention you want to implement and how you plan to approach it.

4. What do you want to see in your client at the end of your intervention? How will you measure whether your goal has been achieved?
